

APPLY FOR ECLS 2024

ORGANISE THE EARLY CAREER LIFE SCIENTISTS' SYMPOSIUM 2024

Get a head start in research and network across disciplines by organising a one-day symposium. The Biochemical Society, The Physiological Society and the British Pharmacological Society will provide financial and logistical support for an in-person, hybrid, or entirely virtual event.

WHAT'S INVOLVED?

- Applicants will be responsible for the planning and organisation of the one-day symposium.
- Applicants must be prepared to work as a team to:
 1. Find a venue or decide on an online platform
 2. Design the programme
 3. Market the conference
 4. Assess abstracts
 5. Raise sponsorship, if necessary (on top of funding from the three societies)
- All proposals must be relevant to the interests of all three sponsoring societies.
