

Pharmacology

Pharmacologists explore and make new medicines, help us understand how medicines work, and make sure they are safe for everyone. Pharmacologists work in lots of different places – from hospitals to science labs and more.

Pharmacy

Pharmacists can give the medicines and share advice to help you stay healthy. You might find them in your local pharmacy, doctor's surgery or hospital.