What our members say

The results of our 2021 member survey

Who took part?

690 members

(16% of membership)

39% students

51% academia

8% industry

Why do members join?

keeping up to date with pharmacology

networking

87% were likely to recommend membership to colleagues and peers

How do members engage with us?

58% e-newsletters

online Community

social media popular with undergraduate and early career members

What are the most valuable member benefits?

networking

discounted registration for meetings

COVID-19

What challenges are our members facing?

19% accessing

68% accessing training and experience

55% completing and publishing research

How have our members responded?

made professional contributions to

COVID-19 response

information and publications

clinical work

training and education

12%

10% testing and diagnostics

